“Everything feels natural, like a table in a Dutch still life painting. But once the guests arrive, this one will become animated.”

The Look of Marble

NAPKIN RINGS
Made with scraps of hand-marbled paper from Florence, no two are alike. Q10 Napkin Rings, 1½" DIA, $20 for set of six. ilpapirofirenze.it.

DINNER PLATE
Modern colors on hand-painted plates whose ornamental designs stay true to their Bulgarian roots. Mimosa Mandala Dinner Plate, 11¾" DIA, $80, by Bulgar USA. thepicketfence.com.

NAPKINS
Cloth napkins printed to resemble classic Italian bookbinding paper. Florentine Paper Napkin, in Inca and Carnival, 22" square, $42.50 each. dransfieldandross.biz.

DINNER PLATE
Marble done digitally—this decal is so naturalistic it looks like the real thing. And we love that pretty scalloped edge, too. Marbled Dinner Plate, 11¼" DIA, $140 for set of four, by Bizzirri. neimanmarcus.com.

Marbled dinnerware by Parisian artisan Sylvie Saint-André Perrin is the focus of this table setting by Bergdorf Goodman's Nicholas Manville. "Each piece is made completely by hand," he says. "She even mixes all of her own clays. Don't they look like minerals dug from the earth?" Glacier chargers, $250, Stripe dessert plates, $150, tapas plates, $120, goblets, $115, and serving bowls, $595, all by Perrin: bergdorfgoodman.com.
